We have had a few bouquets thrown at us since launching the DAILY NEWS, for which we are grateful. If hard work is a criterion, we have deserved them. Even the tyro must admit that with the large area of the city to cover, our reporter must do some riding stunts to gather even a part of the news. Our item boxes are seldom filled, though we appreciate the items dropped there occasionally.

For Sale, one week only, the auxiliary yawl Lucifer, 28 feet long, 7 ft. beam, 11 ft. cabin, 3 h. p., 4 cycle, Strolinger engine with batteries. Anchor cable and tender. Price $550. Hull copper sheathed. In good order. J. Y. DETWILER, Pres. Fla. Fish Com. New Smyrna, Fla.

A Pleasant Tour.

Last night's train brought in Col. C. G. Edwards, G. W. Blymyer and A. H. Kling, who left New York some weeks ago for a trip, the itinerary including long stops in Porto Rico, Cuba and Nassau.

The party left New York by steamer, passing to the east of the Bahamas and landed first in Porto Rico. Here it was that the party had much trouble to get their necessary wants supplied, owing to no one in the party being able to speak Spanish. Many amusing incidents are related by the party as a result of this circumstance. The party seem to have enjoyed themselves thoroughly, except during the gale which prevailed during a part of the trip.

Col. Edwards states that during the gale the steamer passed many wrecks, one of which, a large Spanish steamer, stranded about 5 miles south of Palm Beach.
